

INTRODUCTION TO LITURGY OF THE DAY

Today we continue hearing about the first days Jesus spent with his disciples, healing those who are ill or possessed by demons. When he cures Simon Peter's mother-in-law, she immediately rises and serves her guests. She may not realize it, but she is providing an example to her son-in-law and his companions. She is showing what it means to be a disciple of Hesus. The call to be Jesus' disciple is the call to serve.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Job 7:1-4,6-7 I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.

Psalms 147 "Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted."

1 Corinthians 9:16-19 Woe to me if I do not 22-23 preach the Gospe.

Mark 1:29-39 Jesus cured many who were sick with various diseases.

Our readings today progress from despair to hope. Job has lost his children, his livelihood, and his health. "I shall not see happiness again," he mourns in his lament to God. In the Gospel, "the whole town " came to Jesus, bringing those who were ill or possessed by demons. They wait patiently, filled with hope. Undoubtedly, we can picture ourselves in both situations. When we are in despair, let us remind ourselves of the healing grace of Jesus.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What does it mean to be a disciple? How do I serve others?

CENTERED IN LOVE

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them...Mark 6:34

Many of us may resonate with the circumstances and emotions of this scene. Jesus and his disciples have had a day filled to overflowing with the press of human need, demands so constant that there wasn't even a chance to grab a bite to eat. Even their heading off in a boat toward time and space for solitude was thwarted by people who saw them pushing offshore and then spread the word.

Not having even a moment to be refreshed and restored, Jesus arrives at the shore and sees a throng of people who had beat him to his destination. We aren't told what he was thinking, just what he did. His actions were grounded in compassion. His heart was moved with pity, and he began to teach the waiting crowd.
